New regulated qualification in Social Pedagogy

Crossfields Institute, Thempra Social Pedagogy, Jacaranda and the Social Pedagogy Professional Association (SPPA) are delighted to announce the launch of an Ofqual regulated qualification in England in Social Pedagogy:

Crossfields Institute Level 3 Diploma in Social Pedagogy is now open for registrations.

Social pedagogy connects care and education through its focus on relationship-centred practice. It is underpinned by the idea that each person has inherent potential, is valuable, resourceful and can make a meaningful contribution to their wider community if we find ways of including them.

This Crossfields Institute Level 3 Diploma in Social Pedagogy equips learners with an essential theoretical and practical understanding of social pedagogy which benefits learners both professionally and personally. It will be endorsed by SPPA.

Thempra is a social (pedagogical) enterprise supporting the sustainable development of social pedagogy. www.thempra.org.uk

Jacaranda supports the development of social pedagogy via learning and development, publication and the recruitment of social pedagogues. www.jacaranda-recruitment.co.uk

The SPPA is the professional home for social pedagogy in the UK. It aims to develop excellence and raise the profile of social pedagogy amongst professionals and communities <http://www.sppa-uk.org/>

Crossfields Institute is a Gloucestershire based education charity, approved by Ofqual (the Office of Qualifications and Examinations Regulations in England) as an awarding organisation. The Institute specialises in the development niche qualifications for providers with a particular vision or ethos
